THE NEVADA MYSTERY.

Examination of the Alleged Murderers of Philip Richards.

Copyright, 1887, by the California Associated Press. NEVADA CITY, June 6th .- The examina on of H. J. Dassonville and wife, Annie assonville, was begun at half-past 10 o'clock to-day. The Court-room was filled with an eager, curious crowd, all expecting to hear startling developments in relation to the mysterious assault on Philip Richards, which resulted in his death on the 27th of last month. After the complaint was read the defendants' counsel asked hat the spectators be excluded, and the Court-room was thereupon cleared. Not-withstanding the newspaper reporters were all excluded, the following has been learned concerning the proceedings: Dr. Hunt testified that on the night of April 22d Dassonville brought Richards to is office, the latter suffering from wounds on the head. His left eye was broken and an aqueous humor exuded. The wound was made by a blunt instrument. Richards had been choked also. Neighbors of Dassonville swore to hear ng strange and unusual noises in the nouse on the night of the assault. Mrs. Thomas Watson testified that she heard a noise that sounded like the voice f a man who wanted to cry out but Frank Richards testified that his brother, Philip Richards, the deceased, made the llowing statement to him: On the night in question he was coming from town, he when Mrs Dassonville called him into her do house. He went in. Money was asked for but he did not have it. Dassonville then struck him and knocked him down. He didn't know what he was struck with. He did not say he had made an assignation refuse with Mrs. Dassonville. He did not refuse retire.

The Los Angeles Vitriol Thrower. opyright, 1887, by the California Associated Press. Los Angeles, June 6th .- The preliminary examination of Mrs. Roselle, the vitriol thrower, was resumed this forenoon. Nothing of a sensational character was developed. The physician who attended Petrie stated the nature of the injuries and how they were healed. Dr. Ross, in answer to a question, stated he thought the acid was poured on Petrie's face, and not thrown. The defense objected to the answer, which suggests that they will claim the woman attempted to defend her person. Mr. Roselle will not go upon the stand at the preliminary examination.

Los Angeles, June 6th .- In the Roselle case this afternoon, the case for the people having ceased, the defense began to introduce testimony. Prosecutor Harrison was called by the defense, and in answer to an in-quiry stated that he had had several conversations with Charles Petrie previous to the opening of this examination. The frauds in California wines at the East have been so great and so bold-faced that the reputation of our product has suffered serious decadence and was threatened with destruction. If the new law is rigidly enforced; if the wine makers and dealers prove true to the law and their own best interests, they will very soon witness the overthrow of all the wine frauds. It will not take the Eastern public long to discover the pure wines of California, and to distinguish between them and the spurious, for under this law they will be able to judge in all cases of doubt, from a base of purity certified under law-prove rascally, as many have in the past, the label law will not wholly protect our product. But California producers who select their own agents, those they can implicitly trust, can defeat the frauds It was urged by the New York press a year ago that the California producers should establish their own agencies at the East; but not in all cases can this be done; not all producers can afford the cost involved, though it would seem that by co-operation the end desired could be attained. Bu the label law will go a long way toward improving the California wine market guarantee that the labeled packages contain wine that the people of California in their representative capacity have de substances. Yet it must be confessed that this guarantee is dependent wholly upon the risk a dealer may choose to take of being detected in putting the label upon the law. While it is possible to coun terfeit the label, and to fraudulently use it, vet the knowledge at the East that the raust incline them to watch sharply for and defeat dishonesty in the premises and that they will be induced by common and commendable selfishness to secure enforcement of the law, will go far towards inspiring public confidence in the pack ages bearing the State's labels.

Of course, if dealers outside of the State

There are two classes of labels, barrels and one for bottles. They are pe culiar in design, of two colors, not in volved in printing or engraving, and of a character to be readily recognized, so that to the public they will presently become very familiar. Counterfeiting while possible, will be difficult, for the designs embrace detective devices difficult to exactly

If the label law will check the fraud of palming off cheap, impure and doctored products for California wines, it will greatly benefit our wine makers, and prove a protection to people at the East who drink wines, against physical injury inseparable from consumption of compounded wine cheats. ### Pure Wine Labels.

The new law requiring the use of pure wine labels went into effect yesterday, and orders for labels are coming into the Controller's office from all the wine-producing and manufacturing districts. There are two of the labels or stamps, one for barrels and the other for bottles. Those for barrels are about two and one half inches square, and are intended to be placed over the bung of the package in such a manner that the bur not be started or removed without detroying the stamp. The bottle label is a parrow strip, about three-quarters of an inch in width and six inches in length, in-tended to be fastened across the mouth of the bottle in such a way that the cork can not be withdrawn without destroying the stamp. In the center, directly on the top of the cork, is a lozenge bearing the words. "Pure California Wine." The purchaser of a pottle or cork bearing these stamps unde faced can do so with the full confidence that he is getting a bottle of pure wine and from the factory named on the label. They are printed in two colors, and are a fine specimen of the lithographic art. It is thought by dealers that the use of these the State Agricultural Society. By a careful reading of this it will be seen no power has been conferred upon the articles of incorporation. The objects of their articles of incorporation are changed they have no right to do so. Section 5 of may be divided among the members. It has no right to exercise the corporate privilege of giving premiums for agricultural privileges, and, as we have intimated above. the Attorney-General without doubt if appealed to can intervene to prevent the ex rcise of such power.

A GOOD LAW. the New York "Sun" Commends the California Pure Wine Law.

Copyright, 1887, by the California Associated Press. NEW YORK, June 6th .- [Special.]-The Sun editorially sketches the California pure wine law and makes this comment: "The passage of the law shows how important the wine-producing business of California has become, since the wine-growers and wine makers induced the State Government to undertake to guarantee the products of their trade. It is a remarkable undertaking, and sign of the present drift of legis-lation. About its practical efficiency in suppressing the evils of adulteration and sophistication there may be some doubt. ndeed, some of the Viticulturist Commissioners propose to have the design of the State's labels copyrighted to prevent imitation elsewhere than in California.

Greatest Bargain NORTHERN CALIFORNIA!

THAT MAGNIFICENT ESTATE KNOWN AS THE VALLEJO White Sulphur Springs,

IN SOLANO COUNTY.

164 ACRES OF SPLENDID LAND, together with the hotel and cottages, bath-house, stables, gas house and other buildings; there has been expended, at a low estimate, upward of $140,000 on the property; an artificial lake and island, with bridge, is one of the beautiful attractions: around the lake are summer houses and pretty shade trees, where boats can sail around and the trout fishing can be had; there is a small vineyard, grape arbors, fountains covered with ivy, beautiful walks, pretty groves of trees, a park, summer-houses scattered over the grounds, a wilderness of flowers and banks of roses along the driveway; the orange trees, now in full bloom, and which bear bountifully, attest how favored this place is. It is the most lovely spot in California, and the place should be opened up as a Club. The attention of capitalists is called to the property. It can be made a splendid paying investment, It is offered at a price far below its value. The buildings alone are worth certainly $40,000, at a fair estimate, not coun ing in the improvements made, or the land. The furniture, etc., goes with the property. All the rooms in the hotel and cottages are furnished and carpeted. There is a large dining-room in the hotel, reading-room, billiari-room and smoking-room in one of the buildings.

The Springs are famous and well-known throughout the State. The Sulphur Springs are a great attraction, and these alone have great value. As the property is a partnership, and the owners reside in different States, to make a sale they have decided to sell the property to close out the divided ownership.

For a company or riviaic club to take hold of this fine property there is a fortune in it. The tract outside the hotel grounds could be divided in building lots, as there are hundreds of business men who would like to have a summer IN SOLANO COUNTY.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

WHEREAS, AT A SPECIAL ELECTION held in the State of California, in accordance with law on the twelfth day of April A D. 1887, there was submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification or ejection, three proposed amendments to the onstitution of the State, numbered "One. 'Two" and "Three."

And whereas, said proposed amendments to the Constitution were published according to

And whereas, the Secretary of State having, on the 25th day of May, A. D. 1887, certified to me that the vote cast at said election on said proposed amendments to the Constitution, acording to the returns on file in his office, was as follows, viz. :

For Amendment Number One Against Amendment Number One... ...41,367 For Amendment Number Two. Against Amendment Number Two ..... For Amendment Number Three .... Against Amendment Number Three.....34,156

Now, therefore, I. WASHINGTON BART-LETT, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me by law, do find that said proposed amendments to the Constitution, Number "One" and "Two," were rejected by a majority of the qualified electors voting thereon at said election, and that said proposed amendment Number "Three" (hereinafter given), was approved and ratified by a majority of all the votes cast at said elecion. And do further declare and proclaim that said proposed amendment Number "Three" to the Constitution was approved and ratified as a part of the Constitution of the State of Califor-

Amendment Number Three.

Resolution to propose an amendment to Section Eight, of Article XI., of the Constitution of the State of California, relating to the framing of a charter for cities of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants, and for cities of over ten thousand and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants.

Resolved, That the Legislature of the State of Resorted, That the Legislature of the State of California, at its regular session, commencing on the third day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, two-thirds of all members elected to each of the two Houses of said Legislature voting in favor thereof, hereby propose that Section Eight, of Article IX, of the Constitution of said State be amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Any city containing a population of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants may frame a charter for its own government, consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of the State, by causing a Board of fifteen freeholders, who shall have been for at least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified veters of such city at any general or special elections.

House, it shall become the charger of such ci or if such city be consolidated with a coun then of such city and county, and shall beco the organic law thereof, and supersede any sisting charter, and all amendments thereof, a or chief executive officer, and authenticated by the seal of such charter to the electors, and its ratification by them, shall be made in duplicate and deposited, one in the office of the secretary of State, the other, after being recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of the county among the archives of the city. All Courts shall take judicial notice thereof. The charter so ratified may be amended at intervals of no less than two years, by proposals taerefor, sub mitted by legislative authority of the city to the qualified voters thereof, at a general or special election held at least sixty days after the publication of such proposals, and ratified by at least cation of such proposals, and ratified by at least ief executive officer, and aut election held at least sixty days after the publication of such proposals, and ratified by at least hree fitths of the qualified electors votified thereat, and approved by the Legislature recein provided for the approval of the charter in submitting any such charter, or amendment hereto, any alternative article or propositional between the presented for the choice of the voter and may be voted on separately without prejities to others. Any city containing a power and may be voted on separately without prejudice to others. Any city containing a population of more than ten thousand and no more than one hundred thousand inhabitant may frame a charter for its own government consistent with and subject to the Constitution and laws of this State, by causing a Board of fit teen freeholders, who shall have been for a least five years qualified electors thereof, to be elected by the qualified voters of said city, a any general or special election, whose duty is shall be, within ninety days after such election to prepare and propose a charter for such city which shall be signed in duplicate by the members of such Beard, or a majority of them, and returned, one copy thereof to the Mayor, of there chief executive of said city, and the other the Recorder of the county. Such propose charter shall then be published in two daily papers of general circulation in such city, for a tion held at least sixty days after the publica-tion of such proposals, and ratified by at least three-fifths of the qualified electors voting the re-at, and approved by the Legislature as herein provided for the approval of the charter. In submitting any such charter, or amendment thereto, any alternative article or proposition may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without preju-dice to others.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

An Unprovoked Assault. About 2:15 P. M. yesterday Julius Schwalenberg, a brakeman on the local passenger about to start for San Francisco, made an unprovoked attack upon Assistant Division Superintendent Urquhart in the upon. standing on the platform when Schwalen-berg stepped up to him and inquired, "Do was referred to, though almost immediately it occurred to him that some time ago Schwalenberg got into trouble and was discharged, but subsequently appealed so urgently to Superintendent Wright that the latter reinstated him, and he has since then been rather favored than otherwise. Without further remark, or any demonstration indicating his intention, the brakeman immediately struck Mr. Urquhart a powerful blow on the nose, making a cut about one-third of an inch in length and causing the blood to flow freely. Depot officer Coffey came up soon afterwards, arrested Schwalenberg and turned him over to officer Ash, by whom he was conveyed to the station-house. where a charge of battery was entered against him. On the way over he said, "That fellow had been annoying me until I could put up with it no longer and I biffed him on the nose." Mr. Urquhart, who conducts his business quietly and is not given to annoying any one, stated that he could not understand why he was assaulted, as his assailant was doing well and had a good job, and he imagined that he must be insane.

Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday John Thomas, Barney Timmins, Larry Sullivan and Fred. Leonard, drunks, were, discharged ..... Wm. Thomas, who has been arrested two or three times for drunkenness, was fined $2 50......Antonio King and John Kelley, charged with having been drunk, forfeited their deposits.....The case of P. McHale, accused of battery and disturbing the peace, went over until this morning, owing to the absence of necessary witnesses.....Wm. Casey, arrested for battery, was discharged.....J. L. Markham, a one-armed man, was convicted of battery upon J. L. Mahoney. The latter thought it would not be to his credit to fight and whip a man with only one arm, and had Markham arrested for following and striking him. A fine of $5 was imposed ..... Leroy Fisher, who has been arrested three times within a month, was fined $40 or 40 days for disturbing the peace at Fourth and streets Sunday afternoon, when he used foul language as ladies were passing.....The case of Mike Krau, for disturbing the peace of J. It was found that the poor boy's face and neck were burned shockingly from his forehead to his chest, the skin blistering up into rolls, while his lips were burned until they bled. Fortunately he had instinctively closed his eyes when the explosion took place, and their sight is not injured. He stood his suffering like a hero, and started to walk unattended in search of a doctor, but was quickly assisted by friends. While the blistered skin was being cut away and the burns dressed he did not even swoon. It is not known as vet whether he inhaled any of the fire. His face last evening was much swollen, and he was distressed by an attack of vomiting.

BAILROAD TO PLACERVILLE. Arrangements for its Construction and how They were Effected.

(From the Mountain Democrat.) It is with pleasure that we are able to record this week the fact that all necessary arrangements having been made, Placerville is soon to be directly connected with the outside world by rail, through the extension of the Sacramento and Placerville road from Shingle Springs to this place. On Wednesday last the Board of Supervisors refunded the bonded indebtedness of the county, and immediately thereafter the strikes. railroad company, upon receipt of a stipulated sum, gave a bond in $100,000 to have the road completed to Placerville within one year. Thus is prought about that which our citizens have long sought for and heretofore vainly endeavored to accomplish—the opening up and development of our county by means of rail communication with the rest of the State.

It is now several months since the inau-Oakiand. rest of the State.

guration of this latest movement, which has terminated so auspiciously. Our citizens were called together one alternoon at New York.

The steamship Umbria has made the fastest time on record from Queenstown to New York. the Court-house to take action upon a let-ter received from C. P. Huntington, making a proposition whereby the extension of the road should be guaranteed. The result of that meeting was a large committee, which went to the city, interviewed the railroad officials, and came home not knowing as much as when they wentaway. The movement promised to result disastrously o our interests, when three members of hat committee, Messrs. Geo. E. Williams, . Mierson and H.S. Morey, realizing the opportunity offered to bring our county out from the cloud resting upon it, of their own accord undertook to enter into nego-tiations with the railroad company to arrange the matter satisfactorily to all con-When they started upon the negotiations they had upon which to work the proposition of C. P. Huntington, with which all our readers are familiar—a proposition to build the road providing our citizens gave the right of way and placed $150,000 worth of the bonds of the road. This was an ex-remely difficult question to meet and colve, but the trio started in undaunted. It was not long before negotiations took an entirely different turn, and an adjustment of the question included also the settlement of our country's indebtedness in an honorable way, and speedily. Visit after visit was made to the city, lasting a week or two at a time; many financial difficulties them with violence. They caused the death of a Mrs. Storms from religious excitement.

The President issued an order that, as a were encountered and overcome, and finally the matter was gotten in such shape that the successful outcome rested with the Suall public buildings in Washington be dispervisors of this county. Then the Supervisors were approached pon the refunding scheme. All were not avorable thereto at first, but finally realour county, and a unanimous verdict was a favor of refunding the debt upon the terms proposed, and not only saving a large amount of money to our county, but aining back its name and financial stand-

Then the committee redoubled its efforts, with success almost assured, and all details were arranged for the final consummation the 31st of May. When the Board of upervisors met on that day the proposi-on stood thus: The bonded indebtedness of El Dorado county, with interest accumulations, amounted to $259,000. The bonds Board of Supervisors and asked them to refund the debt at $200,000, the bonds to run for twenty years and bear five per cent. nterest. He agreed to accept this $200,000 n bonds in lieu of the $259 000 in the condition it then stood. It was furthermore agreed that if this were done the railroad company would file a bond to build the road to Placerville within one year. The proposition was accepted. New bonds were issued, the old bonds surrendered, and $100,000 bonds given by the railroad contract with the railroad company, and the company have placed themselves under bonds to fulfill their agreement with the people of the county.

Now, with the difficulty of railroad transportation about to be removed, the future of El Dorado county rests in the energy of its population. We have a county unequaled for productiveness by any in the State; we have a county wherein there is room for thousands, and where homes are cheap; we have a county wherein our gold mines are but beginning to yield the hidden millions; we have a county that can again be made the banner county in the State, and all we need is energy and advertising. Let us stand together and work for the future.

THE PURE WINE BILL.

General Wolseley completed his 54th The Responsibility of Bottlers of Wine Under the New Law. The law to prevent the sophistication and adulteration of wine went into effect on the 6th inst. It is an important law, and one affecting one of the greatest interests of California. Many questions have arisen as to its effect and the responsibility of wine-dealers under it, one of which has been submitted to the Attorney-General

"You make a hypothetical case for my pinion: 'A buys an adulterated wine from The subscription book for the new Episcopal Cathedral at New York has been A bottles the wine and puts the pure wine stamp on the bottle, believing the wine to be pure. Subsequently the wine is found to be not pure. Is A then liable?'"

"It won't do for A to trust implicitly B or his stamps. The Act requires some diligence on A's part. It same hat is ability. igence on A's part. It says that it shall be his duty to become satisfied that the wine contained in the barrels or bottles is all The steamship Umbria has made the that said label imports as defined in this

" A therefore must not be guilty of crim inal negligence. That would be as bad as if A's intent was to palm off adulterated or impure wine. But if A makes a reasonable effort in Cardinal Gibbons celebrated high mass at Archbishop Corrigan's cathedral in New York on Sunday.

The Apaches murdered a white man who was cutting timber on Crowley's ranch, near Benson, A. T.

But If A makes a reasonable effort in good faith to satisfy himself that the wine is all that the label imports and is satisfied after using due diligence he would not be guilty of a misdemeanor, if he was mistaken or imposed upon. It is the good faith of A and the use of due diligence and corn necessarily required to be applied by A That might not at all times be practicable A gripsack containing $4,000 worth of But he must recollect that there is a duty cast upon him to satisfy himself by availational recognition. would be the most satisfactory way to test
